

RABIES CLINIC

Saturday, June 20, 2015

2:15 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Kent Town Garage - Maple Street/Route 341

Dr. Katherine Kane, a member of The Connecticut Veterinary Medical Association, and Kent's Animal Control Officer, Lee Sohl, will be in Kent to provide rabies vaccinations* for dogs and cats.

The cost of each vaccine is $20.00

cash only

DOGS MUST BE ON LEASHES
AND CATS IN CARRIERS

The Kent Town Clerk will also be on hand for residents of Kent who wish to obtain their 2015 dog tags. The State of Connecticut requires that all dogs 6 months of age and older be licensed annually in June (CGA 22-328). The cost of a license if your dog has been spayed or neutered (veterinary certificate required) is $8.00; $19.00 if not.

*All vaccinations will be for one year unless owner brings proof of prior vaccination
