

Flyover Tomorrow

While there will not be a Memorial Day Parade this year, the 131st Fighter Squadron out of Barnes Air Force Base in Westfield, MA will be conducting a flyover across southern New England that will include Kent. The flyover is scheduled for approximately 12:42pm - we suggest getting outside a little early. A map is included below to see the direction the jets be coming from.

Marty Lindenmayer, Commander, American Legion Hall-Jennings Post 153 shared this information and said, "we are grateful to be able to enjoy this special remembrance of our fallen heroes."

Tomorrow, we remember the women and men who died while serving in the US military. In our Kent community, we honor our local fallen heroes at monuments all around town. In this time of wearing masks in public and continuing 6' physical distancing, a walking tour of our monuments is a wonderful way to be outside, and pay your respects to the Kent residents that have given their lives defending our Country.

Locations of our monuments:

Civil War Monument:

At the intersection of routes 341 and 7 is our , a miniature version of the mammoth obelisk in Washington DC.

Veterans Memorial:

Just east on Maple Street
(an extra special treat at night)

A stone for all Veterans:

Main Street at the Kent Memorial Library

Veteran headstones:

In our cemeteries around town

The Kent Congregational Church will be hosting a special Memorial Day service and will read the names of those lost. Check their YouTube channel for the recording.

KENT RESIDENTS LOST IN BATTLE

CIVIL WAR

CHARLES HEMAN SEGER
WILLIAM BARTON
ALMERON BURTON
GEORGE R. MCBINREY
RODERICK FITCH

WORLD WAR I

HAROLD HALL
ABRAHAM BURHANCE
FRANK KINNEY

WORLD WAR II

DONALD JENNINGS
RUSSELL CHASE
FRANK CHASE
LEO SKALSKI
HENRY YOUNG

KOREAN WAR

JOHN OLSON

VIETNAM WAR

NORMAN STODDARD, JR
IVORY WINSHIP, JR

visit our website: www.townofkentct.org

