

NATIONAL LAW ENFORCEMENT APPRECIATION DAY

Thank You!

TO ALL OUR LAW ENFORCEMENT BROTHERS AND SISTERS
WHO SERVE AND PROTECT OUR COMMUNITIES

January 9th is National Law Enforcement Appreciation Day. Law enforcement officers (LEO) place their lives and their health and safety at risk while protecting the public. While some of the risks may be obvious, there are many hazards officers face in the line of duty including: motor vehicle incidents, needlestick injuries, noise and lead exposure, shift work and associated fatigue, and workplace stress and exposure to traumatic incidents that may impact mental health.

Most importantly, if you see a police officer, thank them.
