

News Worth Sharing: Halloween Weekend In Kent

Kent is famous for our Halloween celebrations and this weekend is packed with activities!

Friday October 28th, 10:00-noon:

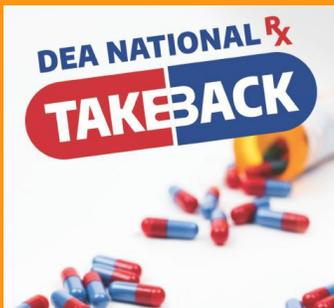

Flu Shot Friday @ Town Hall

Maybe not exactly Halloween ritual, but the upcoming Flu season is anticipated to be ghoulish, so be ready for it by coming down to Town Hall for your flu shot. Details on the Town website.

Saturday October 29th, 9:00-1:00p:

National Drug Takeback Day event @ Town Hall

Come drop off expired medications at Town Hall for safe disposal to keep your homes and family safe.

Saturday October 29th, noon:

Learn How to Administer Naloxone @ Town Hall

Learn when and how to administer Naloxone, an opioid reversal drug that will save a life if someone suffers an opioid overdose. Participants will receive a free Naloxone kit (supply is limited). Hosted by The Northwest Corner Prevention Network.

Sunday October 30th:

KVFD Pancake Breakfast @ KVFD Firehouse - 7:00a-11:30a

Before you head to the Race, head to the KVFD firehouse for pancakes!

46th Annual Pumpkin Run & Kids Fun Run @ Town Hall - 11:15a & noon

This popular race brings over 700 participants to run/walk a stunning 5-mile course along some of the most scenic areas in Kent. To register, click the Pumpkin Man!

- Kids Fun Run kicks off at 11:15a
- Pumpkin Run kicks off at noon

Kent Community Nursery School Fall Games @
1 North Main Street on the Lawn - 11:00a &
2:00p

Wear your costume - they'll be face painting, door prizes, fun games, and a bake sale!

THRILLER HALLOWEEN FLASH MOB

Monday October 31st:

Trick-Or-Treat in the Village

Come to the Village for your Halloween Trick-Or-Treating! The Kent Lions will be handing out glow necklaces at Bain Real Estate on North Main Street, and there will be extra traffic patrols in town for safety.

SPECIAL TREAT:

At 6:00p, South Kent School will put on a Thriller Halloween Flash Mob! Come early to the Golden Falcon (the green space between Kent Wine & Spirit and Heron Gallery) to get a good spot to watch and cheer on the zombies!
