Visual Inventory of Significant and
Representational
Structures of the Kent
Village District

DATED: 9/1/06

The following illustrates those structures within the Village District which typify its pattern of development and significant architecture. As such, they comprise much of the physical form which defines the character of the Village within the context of the town and region.

This document shall be used as a guide in determining whether any proposed plan of development complies with the provisions of the Kent Village District Regulations and shall not be deemed to comprise the full extent of acceptable architectural forms, designs or patterns in the Village District.
